Kessey Coal, both Anthracite and Bituminous, for sale by
LEAVITT & WATSON.

John Watson is down from Albuquerque.

W. P. Edie, the wool buyer, is in the city.

Ed. Henson has gone out to the Magdalena on mining business.

Don't forget to mark to-morrow night.

Richard Mansfield White is up here with some more very fine ore from Hermosa.

From all indications, the Bijou Opera Company will be erected by a full house next Tuesday evening.

Rev. Thomas Harwood was elected chaplain at the territorial encampment of the G. A. R. at Santa Fe.

There will be religious services at the M. E. Church South, at 7:30 o'clock every evening this week except Saturday. If Arthur Goebel has just received twenty thousands pounds of fine fresh grama hay, from Goujon's ranch.

Bob Morlander, Jas. H. McGee and George Carson, came in from Magdalena yesterday evening.

H. Goujon is in from his ranch, east of the Rio Grande, and is anxious to see the bridge repaired.

Mask Carnival Saturday night at the skating rink. Good music and dancing.

The train from the North is from eight to nine hours late to-day, caused by a wreck not far from Lamy junction.

Arthur Goebel has been quite sick for several days, but his friends hope to see him about again as usual within a day or two.

Judge Warren states that a respite for thirty days each will be granted by Governor Ross in the cases of Thomason and Anderson, the condemned men.

Doctor Martin, the receiver for the Perkins' drug store, is now prepared to sell it, drugs, fixtures and all. A fine opening for an enterprising business man.

L. M. Browne is purchasing household furniture and goods, preparatory to making Socorro his permanent residence. They all return to the Gem City.

Mrs. Bell and Miss Schnabel are selling out their millinery goods at cost, preparatory to receiving their new spring stock, which will be the most select ever seen in Socorro. Call around for bargains.

Remember the masked carnival to-morrow night.

Miss Schnabel of the millinery and dressmaking firm of Mrs. Bell and Miss Schnabel, will go East on a visit, in a few days.

Mayor A. J. Buhney should prepare his Washington's Birthday proclamation, as the 22nd will soon be upon us. How would it do to invite Garcia to deliver an oration on that day?

The communication on the rent question in this issue, deserves the careful consideration of every interested citizen. Instead of the $15,000 paid yearly in rents to the anti-American disincorporators, a careful computation shows that it exceeds $2,300 a month. The advice of "One of em" should be followed immediately, and no more complaints of hard times will be heard from our merchants.

The plan of the property owners on Manzaneros avenue, and several men of means, to pool their interests and build a number of business blocks, is a good one and should be adopted at the earliest possible moment. It will be worth thousands of dollars to themselves and to the citizens generally. If that is not done then adopt the suggestions made by "One of em" in this issue of the DAILY CHIEFTAIN. The present mode is a death blow at the business men, as well as at the prosperity of the community, and a change is imperatively demanded.

C. J. Hildreth has sold out his interest in the Bullion to his partner Professor Languemare, and thinks some of taking a trip to San Diego. The CHIEFTAIN and his many friends hope to see him remain a resident of Socorro.

Komic Karachters at the carnival to-morrow night.

Lute Short shot and killed Jim Court-right, at Fort Worth, Texas, a couple of days ago. No particulars are yet at hand.

C. Laufferweiller and wife, of Fort Dodge, Iowa, are visiting their daughter Mrs. A. H. Hilton, of San Antonio, and visited Socorro in company with Mr. Hilton a day or two ago.

MASKED CARNIVAL.

Don't fail to attend the masked carnival, to be held to-morrow evening at the old Opera House. Skating and dancing, turn out and have a good time. Admission 50 cents, no extra charge for dancing. Doors open at 7 o'clock. Rink will be open in the afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock.

This office is in receipt of an invitation to the first grand ball given by Rio Grande Lodge No. 78, Brotherhood of Railroad Brakemen, at the San Marcial House, San Marcial, N. M., on Tuesday evening Feb. 22nd.

THE RENT QUESTION.

EDITOR CHIEFTAIN. I think it about time that some definite action be taken by the business men of Socorro, looking to the final abandonment of the property of the anti-American element of this city. Let all the merchants and business men of our city hold a meeting and agree on some mode of action. The rents paid to one of them, I understand, amount to about $700 per month, which is $8,400 per year. What is paid in rents to other disincorporators and anti-Americans would swell the amount to at least $15,000 per year. That sum is ten per cent on $150,000. A couple of business blocks, amply sufficient to accommodate all the tenants now occupying Mexican disincorporators' rooms, could be built for half that sum. Money can be had in the East for six per cent. Insurance and taxes on the same would probably amount to four per cent additional, making the total ten per cent, or $7,500. Let them pay the same rents that they now do, and in ten years they will be doing business in their own rooms, with no rents to pay, and their property will be worth double what it cost, by the natural increase of value as the city builds up.

This is entirely practicable, and is the most effective way to crush out this anti-progressive spirit that now retards the advancement of the most naturally favored city in New Mexico. It will show the eastern capitalists that we have confidence in our country's resources, and money and enterprise will come in of its own volition.

We are the laughing stock of the Territory. The spectacle of a set of sensible men, pretending to combat the villainous schemes of Garcia and his henchmen, at the same time quietly paying tribute in the sum of $15,000 per year to these identical robbers, is sufficient to excite the ridicule of the robber band itself.

The prophecy of a now too prominent Mexican, uttered six years ago, seems to be verified. With Indianlike emphasis, he said: "Americans are fools. They come with pockets filled with money. Money comes into our pockets. Money all gone, Americans go too. Some more come, fill our pockets again."
